The expression of views from Saigon from the 1st Jan. to the 25th February was 1,346,329 pence. During the same months of 1882 the amount exported was only 635,564 pence. The amount of opium inlanded in the figures contributes to increase.—Independent.

The large immigration of Chinese to Saigon took place in January and has continued ever since, the number of emigrants exceeding the former over that of those leaving being only 93. This total balance of immigration over departure for the two months was 2,537.

The Saigon Independent says that there has been a good deal lately about certain so-called secret societies existing in Saigon.

Our correspondent is happy to be able to announce that there has been much noise about nothing and that there is no cholera in the neighbourhood of Saigon nor in the town itself.

Among the Notes and Queries in the China Review is the following on "Torture in China":—"The Viceroy Lin Kuan-kan, is reporting a difficult murder case to the Emperor, says of one of the parties concerned: 'Nothing can ever be done unless torture according to law is used at the inquiry.' Heretofore it is explicitly stated that under certain circumstances torture may be legally applied."—Independent.

The Saigon Independent says that there has been a good deal lately about certain so-called secret societies existing in Saigon.

Our correspondent is happy to be able to announce that there has been much noise about nothing and that there is no cholera in the neighbourhood of Saigon nor in the town itself.

Yesterday morning intelligence was telegraphed to the police by Mr. Mather at Green Island of the fact that a sailing boat had been run aground distance outwards the harbour entrance. The boat was a small boat, about 15 ft. long, and found the boat bottom upwards a mile and a half beyond Kow-sen-Chow. He cut a hole in the bottom, and found two men in her, who had been immersed in water so long that they were helpless. He brought the men to Hongkong, and they were soon put all right by the administration of a dose of brandy.

H. E. Governor of Macao and Mrs. Gapse who arrived here yesterday from Macao were the guests of the Governor, the Court and the Ambassador in this Colony, yesterday afternoon.

They are on their way to Europe, and will embark on board the Messengers Maritimes steamer Provost this morning, leaving the Murray Pier at about eleven o'clock. They will probably be a guard of honour on the spot, and a salute will be fired. Until the arrival of Soher Graca's successor at Macao, the government of that colony will be administered by the Government Council.

The Independent of Saigon, in publishing a translation of an article which recently appeared in our columns on the Tongkin question, and in which reference was made to the capabilities of the country and the advantages which would accrue to commerce generally from opening up the interior, says that this translation of the Le Monde des Affaires of Hongkong expect that in Tongkin, as elsewhere, the French will get the lions out of the fire and drive them to sea to sell. We hope that it will be otherwise, and that our Government will reserve for France the profit resulting from its intervention in Tongkin.

Our contemporary has much to learn if it thinks a policy of exclusiveness will prove profitable.

A letter from Kulja in the St. Petersburg Zedonok, makes the following observations on the disturbed state of Kulja:—"Instead of our swords of Kulja increasing the friendly feelings of China, it has only served to excite her distrust of us. The Chinese, who are now in power, are very suspicious of us, and the English, French, and German Empires, and the British Shipbuilding Company Limited, from their shipbuilding yard at Goran, the Glenary, which forms the latest addition to the well-known Glen line, is of the following dimensions:—Length 350 feet 4 inches, depth of 24 feet 5 inches, breadth 41 feet 7 inches, tonnage 2,700, horse power 650. She has a splendid saloon on deck, and carries 20 passengers, for whom comfortable accommodations are provided on board, in the style of the Orient Line. The owners of the vessel intend to lay themselves out more particularly for this branch of traffic."

The delivery of the French mail was begun at the following hours. Holders of 4, not less than 4,500 yesterday afternoon. The mail was landed at 2.30.

The bookseller Charles Fallon, who was sent to gaol for three months as a rogue and vagabond on Saturday, having been arrested when beggary, was again brought before Mr. Wodehouse this morning. Mr. Wodehouse denied that his decision Fallon still had not the American ship Mercuria in September, and went to her in Manila. There the vessel was blown ashore in the typhoon, when he was paid off, and sent back to Hongkong. On the 6th January he was admitted a patient to the Civil Hospital, and was only discharged from the service of the 13th instant. He had lost his discharge papers, and was unable to get a new one, so that he might be arrested, so that his incarceration might break him of his habit he had contracted of smoking opium. He thought a month in jail was all that was necessary, and three months was too much.

The House of Commons has agreed, without a division, to a motion to contribute £50,000 towards India's expenses in Egypt, 4th March.

Lord Hartington, in replying to a question in the House of Commons, said that, after consultation with his colleagues, it had been decided to prolate the correspondence between the Home and the Indian Governments respecting the latter's share of the expenses of the Egyptian Expedition, although there was some inconvenience attending the publication of the papers in India.

The army estimates show an increase of three thousand men.

It is believed that Byrne and Sheridan will not be extradited unless stronger evidence can be produced against them. Byrne phalanx alibi.

LONDON, 6th March.

The official correspondence has been published concerning India's share of the expenses of the Egyptian Expedition. The Indian Government, replying to Lord Hartington's letter on the subject, said that they would receive the sum of £100,000 from the Indian Government, and at the same time, prolate energetically their own India bearing all costs of the Indian Contingent. The correspondence further stated that the Indian Government had never been consulted with respect to British policy in Egypt, and, India being only remotely concerned, urged that England should bear the whole cost. The Indian Government also, in relation to the cost of the contingent, represented the inability of India financially to bear the burden. If India could not do so, in a despatch dated October 5th, it was stated that the cost of the expedition had been greatly under-rated, but it was necessary that India should pay a fair share. Lord Kimberley, on February 22nd, notified to the Indian Government the grants proposed to be paid by the home government towards the Indian Contingent.

FOOTBALL, properly played, is a game which will always be popular sports. But improperly played, it is a most dangerous "robbery." On the 23rd January last a match was played at the York, Melbourn, and Hull clubs. The game was an exceedingly rude one throughout, and we are told that it was "unfortunately marred by numerous disputes, and in one case two of the players came to blows." Cannot the Rugby Union do something to prevent occurrences as disgraceful as this? Both clubs mentioned above are to play the Yorkshire Challenge Cup, and the sequence of free fights on the football field might be prevented by shallowing the entries of clubs so offending.—St. James's Gazette.
